Strategic Positioning

STRENGTH

- Group: capital ns IDR 4.1T (2024)
- B2C, B2B, travel, & offline retail
- 202k m², 2-hour delivery, smart warehouse
- Rising take rates (6.9% → 9.0%)

WEAKNESS

- Relatively low market share (~6% web visits vs Shopee/Tokopedia >70%)
- Still operating losses (-IDR 2.5T in 2024)
- High CAC vs incumbents
- Heavy investment needs

OPPORTUNITY

- Expansion home & lifestyle
- Social commerce growth TikTok & livestreaming
- Travel rebound Tiket.com momentum post-pandemic
- Operating leverage → Opex/TPV fell from 8.3% to 7.4% (2024)

THREAT

- E-commerce aggressive promotions & livestream
- TikTok Shop returning → Gen Z share at risk
- Regulatory risk (consumer data laws)
- Soft consumer sentiment in macro downturn

Market & Competitor Benchmarking

Indonesia e-commerce GMV

$62B (2023), growing ~20-25% CAGR

Indonesia e-commerce Market Share

has ~6% share (vs. Shopee ~36%, Tokopedia ~35%)

Insights – Peer Valuation Benchmarking

- has ~6% share (vs. Shopee ~36%, Tokopedia ~35%) - trades at discount (P/S ~3.0×) despite comparable growth (14-20%) → Valuation gap vs Shopee (5.5×) and Lazada (4.5×)
- Shopee - commands premium due to strong scale and 25% revenue growth → Investor confidence in monetization and dominance
- Re-rating potential for if it improves profitability and market traction → Path to 4.0× P/S could unlock significant upside

Financial Snapshot (2021–2024)

Key Takeaways

Revenue nearly doubled from 2021 - 2024, while net losses narrowed by 50%

→ Loss narrowing from IDR -5.5T to -2.5T in FY2024, revenue up 14%

→ Indicating stronger monetization and operational efficiency

Strategic Challenges

Cost Structure Table (% TPV)

Cost Category	% of TPV (est.)	Notes
Marketing & CAC	3.5–4.0%	Above industry avg; brand lagging
Fulfillment & Logistics	5.0–6.0%	Due to full-stack logistics model
Operations (incl. G&A)	2.0–2.5%	Streamlining in progress
Tech & Product	1.5–2.0%	Strategic investment area
Net EBITDA Margin	–2.5–3.0%	From FY2024 report

Strategic Pin Points

- 💵 Cash Burn Remains High
Despite narrowing to –IDR 2.5T in 2024, burn rate still unsustainable
- 👤 Limited User Base vs Shopee/Tokopedia
~6% web traffic share vs peers >70%
- 🚚 High Logistics and Fulfillment Costs
Full-stack model drives capex & opex burden
- 🎯 Capital Intensive Growth Strategy
Requires ongoing investment in Dekoruma, Ranch, warehouses

Strategic Recommendations

Category Focus

"Double down on high-margin, brand-driven verticals"

- Prioritize Electronics, Home & Living, and Travel
- Expand curated assortment and private label in home category
- Leverage Tiket.com to grow travel bundles & cross-sell

Omnichannel Expansion

"Bridge online-offline to drive loyalty and AOV"

- Scale offline pickup points & showroom experience
- Deepen integration with Ranch Market, [redacted] Store, Dekoruma Center
- Enable loyalty-based O2O redemption ([redacted] Tiket Points)

Operational Efficiency

"Drive scale with leaner cost structure"

- Use AI-driven inventory planning & markdown optimization
- Enhance performance marketing ROI with 1P/3P segmentation
- Streamline logistics via hub utilization & batching

Financial Forecast Summary (2025–2029)

Revenue and EBITDA Forecast (2024–2029)

Revenue doubles

- Revenue projected to grow IDR 16.7T (2024) → IDR 33.0T (2029)
- → CAGR ~15%, driven by category focus and omnichannel execution

EBITDA Break-even by 2027

- EBITDA turns positive start 2027 and grows to IDR +900B by 2029
- → Signals operational leverage and maturing cost discipline

FCF, CapEx, and Gross Margin Forecast (2024–2029)

CapEx Discipline Drives FCF Recovery

- Ongoing reduction in capital spending enables Free Cash Flow to improve steadily, turning positive by 2029

Forecast Assumptions

- Revenue grows at ~15–16% CAGR from 2024–2029
- Gross margin expands from 19.7% to 21.0% by 2029
- CapEx declines gradually as logistics build-out stabilizes

DCF Valuation

EV remains negative

- Enterprise Value (EV) remains positive across all scenarios, even under conservative assumptions, indicating fundamental valuation support.
- Base scenario (WACC 10%, Terminal Growth 3%) yields a fair value of ~IDR 2.1T, aligning with s improving unit economics & margin recovery path.

Notes

- Sensitivity based on projected FCF 2025-2029
- Terminal value at g = 2-4%
- WACC = 10-12%

Comparable Company Valuation

Comparable Valuation: P/S Multiple Applied to Blibli Revenue (2024)

✓ Key Takeaways – Peer Valuation Comparison

- At peer P/S multiples (3.5x–6x), s implied equity value = IDR 50T–75T
- Implied price per share = IDR 1,000–1,500
- Valuation re-rating potential if improves margins and user scale

📝 Assumptions

- Shares Outstanding = 133.8 billion
- Net Debt = 0, so Equity Value ≈ EV
- P/S multiples derived from listed peers (GoTo, SEA, Lazada)

Valuation Bridge & Final Conclusion

✓ Key Takeaways – Valuation Bridge

- DCF valuation reflects downside risk, with intrinsic value starting as low as IDR 2.1T
- Market-based comps imply much higher equity value (up to IDR 75T)

Method	EV Range (IDR T)	Implied Price IDR/Share
DCF	2.1 – 2.8	5.9 – 17.9
P/S Comps	50 – 75	374 – 562
EV/EBITDA	59 – 89	440 – 665

is a defensible omnichannel player with improving fundamentals, but not yet profitable

- DCF-based fair valuation (IDR 2.1–2.8T) reflects realistic upside under a margin recovery path.
- Market-based multiples (P/S and EV/EBITDA comps) suggest further upside potential – up to IDR 75T in implied equity value.
- Execution in core verticals and continued cost discipline will be critical to unlock this value
